

2024 Annual Conference Presenter:

MARC HILL

MARC HILL has an impressive 20-year public service career, holding positions as a teacher, coach, principal, firefighter, engineer, and Fire Chief for both volunteer and career departments. He's also an accomplished author, with the Amazon bestseller "Two Dark Thirty: True Stories to Inspire Teaching and Learning in Our Local Heroes" and its accompanying workbook. Marc's qualifications include a master's degree in educational leadership and numerous state and national certifications as an instructor, firefighter/paramedic, and incident commander. Throughout his journey, he's been recognized with three Teacher of the Year awards and the prestigious Core Values Award. He is the founder and chief instructor at Two Dark Thirty Educational Consulting.

Marc will deliver two presentations for our Instructor Development Track -- BRIDGING THE GENERATIONAL GAP: Successfully Teaching and Onboarding Millennials, Gen Z, and Gen Y, on Friday afternoon, February 16; and UNLOCKING THE POWER OF NFPA 1700: Guide for Structural Fire Fighting, on Saturday, February 17.

For more information about these and other programs offered at our Annual Instructors Conference, visit our WSESI Conference Webpage:

www.wsesi.org/annual-conference